

Arthritis

A water based exercise program that is tailor made for individuals with arthritis. Class includes gentle exercises and movement specifically designed to help promote a healthier lifestyle. The program is proven to decrease pain and depression while improving functional ability, range of motion and strength.

Instructor: Cindy Morrison